

Upcoming Free Seminars, Presented by KP Law, P.C.

KP Law is excited to announce two upcoming free seminars.

“CORI and Criminal History Background Checks for Public Entities: An Overview of Current Requirements”

Please join us for an informative and interactive webinar on “CORI and Criminal History Background Checks for Public Entities: An Overview of Current Requirements,” presented by Attorneys Janelle M. Austin and Michele E. Randazzo.

Date: THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 2020

Time: 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

This program will discuss the latest updates with respect to the use and handling of Criminal Record Offender Information (“CORI”) in the public sector. From “ban the box” to changes in the CORI laws resulting from criminal justice reform, we will provide a comprehensive overview of current legal requirements with respect to CORI in the public employment, licensing, and housing contexts. Participants will be able to ask questions during the program and will receive a copy of our current comprehensive guide to CORI.

RSVP: If interested in attending, please RSVP to Amy Morin at amorin@k-plaw.com, by March 20, 2020.

Technology Requirements: This webinar will be presented through Cisco Webex™ Online Meeting. This program is compatible with most internet browsers, operating systems, and devices/computers. Program participants will be provided with information about how to log into the online meeting prior to March 26th.

OPEB TRUST WORKSHOPS

Also, KP Law is pleased to participate with Rockland Trust and Odyssey Advisors in a series of upcoming OPEB Trust Workshops. Sessions will be held on March 11, 2020 in Burlington, and March 24, 2020 in Westborough. Both sessions are from 11:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. Click here for the invitation containing additional details, including RSVP information. Remaining space is limited for the Burlington session, and the RSVP deadline is fast approaching. Reserve your spot early for the Westborough session to ensure your space.
